Solo Acting Serious rubric

Introduction/Transitions

Score: 5

Does the speaker provide well-written introduction/transitions that include title and author of the work as well as sufficient information to set the mood and tone for the piece? Do the introduction and any transitions help the presentation move along smoothly? Were introduction and transitions presented without the use of notes?

I loved how you looked at us so intently while you described the dark secrets of the mind. Effective hook to get us interested.

Quality Material

Score: 5

How does the piece chosen provide insight into human values, motivations, relationships, problems, and understandings without sentimentality, violence for its own sake, unmotivated endings, or stereotyped characterizations?

Your material was very powerful and relevant to grief.

Vocal Delivery

Score: 5

How does the speaker utilize effective vocal techniques to enhance meaning and convey motivations and emotions? Are pitch, volume, and rate appropriate? Are articulation and pronunciation clear and correct?

Pauses for effect and rate changes helped to deliver the intensity of your piece.

Physical Delivery

Score: 5

Is the speaker consistent in blocking, miming actions, and maintaining focal points for dialogue? How is/are character(s) physically portrayed in a realistic and consistent manner?

You did an amazing job with your blocking! We always knew where you were and what you were doing. The nose scrunch was amazing, as well as when you burned the letter!

Overall Effect

Score: 3

How is the performance a strong example of a well-paced, unified presentation? Does the presentation build to a climax?

A little short. Let us know when you are done through a definitive ending.
